

Exercise 1.1 : Climate Change and Specific Human Rights

Have you experienced climate change impacting specific human rights in your own life? The link may not be clear to you but examine situations where climate change has impacted you, your locality or your region. How has it impacted you? Did it refrain you from enjoying one (or more) of your rights?

Exercise 1.2 : Human Rights Analysis Tool

The climate emergency intersects and often infringes upon specific human rights. Take a moment to think about the community that you belong to and the individuals that reside within it. Use the chart below to help brainstorm how you have witnessed climate change impacting the human rights of those in your community. Based on the specific human right, rate how often you observe human rights violations.

Specific Human Right	Never Observe	Seldomly Observe	Frequently Observe	Consistently Observe
 Right to Life
 The Right to Self-Determination
 Right to Health
 Right to Food
 Right to Adequate Housing
Rights to Equality and Non-Discrimination
 Rights of Displaced Persons and the Rights of Migrants
 Rights of the Child
